“Vivid ruby-red. Aromas of dark berries, cherry pit and cola are sharpened by peppery spices and minerals. Fleshy and broad on entry, then tighter in the mid-palate, offering pliant blackberry and cherry-cola flavors and a subtle touch of licorice. Tangy acidity adds lift and cut to the long, spice-accented finish, which is framed by silky, slow-building tannins.” Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
